Marsha Ingersoll elected to lead national Chums, Inc.

On October 18, 2025, Marsha Ingersoll was elected the 21st National President of Chums, Incorporated, a national 501C3 organization of women across the United States who use their talents in service to their communities.

Ms. Ingersoll is a charter member of the Oklahoma City chapter, which was chartered in 2007. Chums, Inc. was established in 1946. Ingersoll has served on the national level since 2014, when she was first elected National Recording Secretary. She also served as National Financial Secretary from 2018-2021, and as National Vice President from 2022-2025.

Ms. Ingersoll is an active member of the Oklahoma City chapter, having served as chapter president, treasurer, financial secretary, and parliamentarian.

"I'm elated to receive this vote of confidence from the Chums, Inc. Board of Directors. It is truly an honor to be elected to lead such a wonderful organization. It is a blessing to have a national voice and a platform to enrich the lives of children during this time in our nation," said Marsha Ingersoll.

Ms. Ingersoll retired from the City of Oklahoma City as the Assistant Director of Public Information and Marketing. She is currently the Chair of the City of Edmond's Community Agency Review Commission, serves on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Central Oklahoma, and is the Treasurer for the Associate Group of the Oklahoma City Chapter of Jack and Jill of America.
