Oklahoma City Chapter of Chums, Inc. accepting applications for the Dr. Karen M. Clark Scholarships

(Oklahoma. City) The Oklahoma City Chapter of Chums, Inc. is currently accepting applications for the Dr. Karen M. Clark Scholarships. Three $1,500 scholarships and a $500 book scholarship will be awarded to seniors who will complete their high school education in Spring 2026 and attend a college or vocational school full time for the first time in Fall 2026.

Graduating seniors from Oklahoma City, Edmond, Putnam City, Millwood, Choctaw, Deer Creek, Mid-Del Schools and Charter Schools in those districts are eligible to apply. Completed applications should be submitted by April 1, 2026, postmarked or emailed, to be considered.

Scholarship information and application are available on the Oklahoma City Chapter of Chums, Inc. website, www.chumsokc.org or may be requested by emailing chumsokc@gmail.com.

Dr. Karen M. Clark, organizer and first president of the Oklahoma City Chapter of Chums, Inc., served in education as a professor, department chair and administrator at the State Department of Education, St. Gregory College and Langston University. The scholarship was named in honor of her achievements and commitment to education.
